OTUS SUPPLY PRESENTS "GIMME SHELTER" A BENEFIT DINNER & CONCERT FOR SOS FEATURING DAVE SIMONETT
FROM TRAMPLED BY TURTLES

(November 28, 2017 – Ferndale, MI) On January 10, 2018, Ferndale based eatery & music venue Otus Supply kicks off it's 1-year Anniversary with a weeklong celebration including a spirited dinner and concert titled "Gimme Shelter" to benefit South Oakland Shelter (SOS). The concert will feature Dave Simonett from Trampled By Turtles, and a portion of event proceeds will benefit homeless men, women, and children who receive care and assistance at SOS.

This spirited benefit includes a four course dinner from award winning "Best Chef" Myles McVay, wine pairings, and an intimate concert in the Parliament Room with Dave Simonett from Trampled By Turtles. This launches an ongoing campaign with SOS that enables guests to make a donation with every ticket purchase.

$100 ticket includes four course dinner, dessert, wine pairings, and concert ticket.

"We at Otus Supply believe SOS provides an amazing service for folks in need! We recognize their ability to help people find shelter and provide long-term stability. Music builds community and we are excited to give our guests the opportunity to celebrate the music they love and give back," says Thom Bloom, Owner at Otus Supply.

“We are thrilled that our friends at Otus Supply have decided to use their anniversary celebration as an opportunity to engage their community in such an important charitable purpose,” said Ryan Hertz, CEO at SOS.

About Otus Supply

Opened in December of 2016, Otus Supply is the culmination of visionaries Thom Bloom, Tiny Myrick, Myles McVay, and Ian Redmond’s life’s work. Otus Supply welcomes you to come as you are, break bread, and enjoy a Spirited Gathering with people who love food, music, and beer. Within these walls you will discover meals born from ingredients from everywhere the Owl flies – combined with their passion for music, art, and libations. Help them celebrate the foundation of Detroit - where many cultures gathered and shared a common goal of progress. Otus Supply focuses on craftsmanship, quality, and an ambient atmosphere designed to foster inclusivity. Visit otussupply.com.

About South Oakland Shelter (SOS)

Serving our community for over 30 years, SOS has evolved into a local homeless service expert. SOS’s focus on housing as the primary solution to homelessness has strengthened our impact throughout our region. SOS implements housing-first programming, operates a rotating shelter, and provides various supportive services that move people from homelessness to long-term stability.
